

Attendance Facts

If your child attends school 100% they will be able to make the best of all opportunities available to them.

Learners who attend above 95% are more likely to complete their SACE with good grades.

If your child averages 90% attendance throughout their schooling, they will have missed over one year's education!

90% = missing 20 days of school in one year

If your child averages 80% attendance throughout their schooling, they will have missed over two year's education!

80% = missing 40 days of school in one year or one day per week)