

Kapunda High School Centenary Foundation 2019

The recipient of the 2019-2022, Kapunda High School Centenary Foundation Jim Bettison Scholarship Award is Abigail Lemar, who was acknowledged 2018 DUX of Kapunda High School. During the event, Principal of Kapunda High School, Kristen Masters, spoke of Abigail's journey through Kapunda High School, acknowledging her dedication and commitment to her studies and her strong leadership skills. Abigail was an active participant in the many extra-curricular activities available at the school and was Head Prefect of the school in 2018, House Captain, and Paul Giles Memorial Award recipient.

Abigail has been accepted by the University of Adelaide to commence a Bachelor of Laws, and a Bachelor of Criminology.

Said Ms Masters, 'Abigail impressed us through the interview process with her strong interest in law and law enforcement – presenting exceedingly well with a clear sense of where her career may head and a maturity we felt that would stand her in good stead going forward'.

The recipient of the Helen James Award for 2019-2020 is Madison Roehrs, whom is enrolled to undertake a Bachelor of Engineering (Hons) – Flexible Entry – Flinders University.

'Madison's strong interest in Science has been evident from her early years at Kapunda High School.

She has taken every opportunity to pursue this both at school and through extra-curricular activities offered through universities here and interstate – She attended a Summer School programme and the Science Olympiads', said Ms Masters.

The following Country Education Foundation grants for 2019, including the 2019-20 Ahrens Regional Education Awards, the Ian Murray Education Grant, the Johnson Family KHS Country Education Grants, and the Kapunda Community Thrift Award recipients were:

Patrick Dempsey and Amy Wilsdon (Ahrens Regional Educational Awards), Courtney Launer (Kapunda Community Thrift Shop Award), Courtney Loffler (Ian Murray Award), Renae Helmore and Marisha Hughes (Johnson Family KHS Country Education Grant), Sheralee Hackett and Michaela Massey (Country Education Grant).